ANNEX D

Examination Rules for Students

1. Candidates are required to ensure that on the day of examinations they arrive 15 minutes before the start of examinations.
2. No students shall be admitted to the examination's hall/ room later than 30 minutes after the start of the examinations and no extra time shall be given to late comers.
3. No Candidate will be allowed to leave examination hall until 30 minutes have elapsed from the time when the question paper is given, or re-enter examination hall after leaving it, after finally returning his/her answer book to the invigilator.
4. Personal belongings of students including books, pencil cases and bags, etc. shall be left in the place designated for this purpose at the examination hall without any responsibility to the University.
5. Do not carry your mobile phones in Examination Hall. Switch your cell phones off and do not leave them on mute/vibration/offline mode even in your bag. If someone is found in custody of cell phone during exam or anyone's cell phone is found switched on (inside the bag of concerned student), it will be considered as an attempt of cheating.
6. No other electronic aids are permitted such as mobile phones/digital diaries etc. in the examinations hall. Any student found possessing these electronic aids shall be liable to cancellation of that paper, removal from Examinations Hall, suspension for next semester, and/or expulsion from University.
7. Each student shall sit in the Examination Hall as per the seating plan issued by Examination Dept.
8. Each student is required to place his/her ID card on the desk in the examination hall for the duration of his/her examinations. Attempts of impersonation of any candidate shall lead to cancellation of examinations.
9. All answers intended for the examinations must be written on both sides of the pages of the Answer Scripts and not on one side only. Supplementary sheet will be provided only when the candidate has fully written out on both sides of the pages of the Answer Script/ extra sheet already provided.
10. No loose paper will be provided to use for rough work and no paper is to be brought in for the purpose. All work must be done in the answer script provided and the pages used for rough work or calculation(s) must be struck out by drawing a line through each page so used from top to bottom and no page should be torn out.
11. Candidates are forbidden to write any answer or anything else on the question paper or any material or carry away any writing from the examination hall.
12. To draw the attention of the invigilator the candidate may simply raise hand without making any noise or disturbance.
13. Borrowing of stationery is strictly not allowed during the examinations.
14. A candidate while in the examinations shall not help or try to help any other candidate nor obtain or try to get help from any other candidate. Communication of any sort between candidates and any other person (inside or outside the examinations hall) is strictly prohibited. Stringent punishment will be meted out to students who are found in possession of notes, books, scribbling or making any attempt to use unfair means.
15. Candidates will fill all the information in the blank space on the answer scripts along with their signature.
16. Invigilator has the right to expel any student from the examinations hall on any attempt of cheating, misconduct or any other behavior they feel inappropriate without any recourse.
17. The students will start writing when the invigilator announces "You may start the paper now". When the Invigilator announces the end of the examination by saying "Stop Writing"; The students shall stop writing immediately and remain seated silently until permitted to leave the examination hall by the Invigilator.
18. Any type of calculator may be used provided that the calculator is hand held, battery operated or solar-powered, noiseless and has no facility for the storage of alphabetical information other than hexadecimal numbers. Calculators must be available for inspection by the Invigilators. "Calculators will not be allowed for Examinations where paper setter has specifically mentioned in question paper".
